Habitat for Humanity Festival of Trees

We are now only six weeks away from the annual Habitat event at The Kleman Plaza. This fundraiser is still in need of tree sponsors, donations and silent auction items. If you have a crafty neighbor or know of a business that might want to provide a gift, gift certificate or be a sponsor, please contact St. John's at (850) 222-2636. Donors will be recognized by signage and in the program handed out to Festival attendees. If you would like to attend this event, there will be a Preview Reception at the Mary Brogan Museum on November 17 that will include a flamenco guitar group, a flute ensemble, and a brass quintet performing along with a reception catered by various restaurants and caterers. Come out and enjoy all the decorated trees, music and food to support Habitat in their fundraising effort. Trees will be for sale on November 18 and 19 and will be delivered to your home.

The Amazing Chili Cook-off Fundraiser

Come, Taste, Vote for a $5 donation on Monday, Nov. 7. Dine-in or take-out from 5:00-7:00pm. It's St. Lukes in Live Oak vs Holy Comforter! And we'd love to add more church names to the cook-off event! St. Luke's and Holy Comforter are throwing the challenge down to any church that 'thinks' they can beat their best-tasting chili. Join the fun! Call Pastor Amanda 224-3817.

Interfaith Book Club

The November meeting of the Interfaith Book Club will be on November 17 at 7 pm at St. John's. The book selected for this month's discussion is In the Garden of Beasts by Erik Larsen and it is available at St. John's Bookstore. All interested in the subject of the Holocaust are invited.

Sweet Treats for the Market

Why not bake fall treats for Market with spices, pumpkin, apples, cinnamon and cloves? Get your favorite recipes out and whip up something for the Sweet Treats booth this year! ## Donate Items for Silent Auction

We are looking for vacation homes, estate jewelry, fine art and dinners to auction off at the Market on November 19. Also, we are collecting gift certificates for services from local businesses and restaurants. To donate something wonderful, please contact St. John's at (850) 222-2636.

Bookstore News

Your favorite holiday delicacies are back in the Bookstore. The delicious grits cheese bits and the crunchy peanut and pecan brittle that we had last year have arrived. In addition to those yummys, we have vanilla and chocolate meringues. These good things make wonderful stocking stuffers or hostess gifts.

New to us, but popular in our area, is the two book series of Spring Creek Chronicles. These books are written by the owners of the favorite Spring Creek Restaurant and in their words are "stories of commercial fishin,' huntin,' workin,' and people along the North Florida Gulf Coast." A great gift for the man on your list.

Beaded bags and colorful glass cheese boards with spreaders have been favorites in the store for several years and we have brought them back again this season. The bags come in a variety of colors and in two sizes. Stop in now for the best selection.

We've Gone Digital!

If you receive emails from St. John's, you may have already seen the digital newsletter. But, if not, visit our site at: <http://sjmarkettally.blogspot.com/>. As we get closer to Market, we'll update this newsletter with all kinds of great information for the general public. That's when we'll want you to help get the word out by forwarding the site to your family and friends!
