

St. John's Chimes

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST | October 10, 2021

Welcome to St. John's!

I'm so glad you are here worshipping with us today. I do hope you will stick around after for some fellowship and education. At 9 AM weekly, chat with others about the week's lessons down in Killeen Hall. Then following the 10 AM service, join us in that space for our "Coffee Talk" forum. Meanwhile, children (PreK-5th) gather for Sunday School upstairs. And on select Sundays, youth (6th-12th) meet for Bible.Conversation.Donuts. Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome at St. John's!

The Rev. Abigail W. Moon, Interim Rector

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

Giving Shapes and Protects our Hearts!

All month long, we're hearing from parishioners about the CONNECTION and COMMUNITY experienced at St. John's and why these individuals give. When it comes to spiritual giving, why we give can inform how we give. Giving shapes our hearts, and when we give enough of our treasure to God's work, it draws our hearts toward heaven. Giving also protects our hearts and grows our love for Jesus so we can delight in all that God is doing. He is doing fabulous things at St. John's for sure! Please prayerfully consider your pledge commitment to ensure our parish programs and ministries can continue.

Today at 11:15 AM, Coffee Talk returns to a hybrid format in Killeen Hall (in person or via Zoom). At the same time, Children's Sunday School begins a new year in our upstairs classrooms. ANNOUNCEMENTS

New Assisting Priest on Sundays

Join us in welcoming the Rev. William B. Trexler, who will assist with Sunday services as we continue the search for our next rector. Fr. Bill has more than 30 years of ministry as an ordained Lutheran pastor and has served with several churches during interim periods. Former North Carolina residents, Bill and his wife Karla relocated this spring to be closer to their son Ben and his family, who live in Tallahassee and attend St. John's. Bill grew up in Asheville, NC, and graduated from Duke University in 1966 and Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary in 1970. He served parishes in South Carolina, Virginia, & Florida. In 1995, Bill was elected bishop of the Florida-Bahamas Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

October 16 – Brian McLaren: Faith After Doubt

The Front Porch presents Brian McLaren. Next Saturday, join us in the church as this acclaimed author talks about his most recent book, which speaks to the millions of people around the world who feel that their faith is falling apart. Following his talk and an audience Q&A, Mr. McLaren will sign books in Eve's Garden (please bring your own book). Seating is NOT reserved, but please indicate your interest online and sign up for last-minute event updates. This event will also be streamed live.
