

St. John's Chimes

SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT | March 5, 2023

GET INVOLVED

Help St. John's Angel Food Ministry!

Like to cook? Our Angel Food Ministry is seeking volunteers to provide meals to parishioners who are sick, bereaved, or are otherwise limited in their ability to prepare meals for themselves. No feasts required! Meals can be small, simple, and homemade or take out. To be added to the volunteer list, email Lisa Askins (lmaskins512@yahoo.com). You can opt to serve every need or occasionally, as your schedule permits.

Second Sunday Soup Supper – March 12

There are just two more monthly soup suppers this spring. Join The Front Porch at 6:45 PM on Sunday, 3/12 for some fellowship and a light supper in Alfriend Hall. Following our meal, we'll move to the church to end the weekend with the peace and beauty of the Sung Compline service (7:30 PM). More food bringers are needed!

UPCOMING DEADLINE

College Scholarship for St. John's Members

We are approximately a month out from the application deadline for the 2023 Martha Lee Kuersteiner Scholarship, a need- and merit-based award presented annually by St. Mary's Circle. This year, the scholarship amount has grown to $2,000. It is also available to college students at all levels! St. John's members who have completed at least one semester (or equivalent) of college, and are known to have participated in worship, are eligible to apply. Deadline: April 15. Visit our website for the details, including the history of this scholarship, which is now in its 25th year!

VESTRY NEWS

2023 Officers Announced

At the February meeting, our newly constituted St. John's Vestry confirmed the following officers. Mahaska Whitley and Steve Peters were approved to continue as senior and junior warden, respectively. Brooke Kennerly will continue as secretary; Cindy Sessions will serve again as treasurer; and George Gwynn will remain chancellor. JR Saginario was approved as Finance Chair. # Highlights

TODAY

Episcopal 101: The Episcopal Way

After today's 10 AM service, Fr. Lonnie will lead the first of five weekly "Episcopal 101" discussions. This week, you're in for a brief crash-course in church history. These weekly talks are being held during our Sunday Forum time so all can participate, and they're part of our ongoing "Growing in Grace" adult confirmation class. A list of topics is available online.

Youth Night: Messy Games

Calling all 6th-12th graders: TONIGHT is First Sunday Youth Group! Wear old clothes for an evening of messy games featuring shaving cream, eggs, pudding, and more. Meet at church from 5 to 7 PM. Bring a friend! What's for dinner? Well, Sloppy Joes, of course!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Anam Cara: Book Discussion – 3/25

This Lenten season, we invite you to pick up a copy of John O'Donohue's best-seller, "Anam Cara: A Book of Celtic Wisdom." Then, join us for coffee and a book discussion on Saturday, March 25 at 10 AM. Weather permitting, we'll gather in Eve's Garden. Copies of the book are available locally at Midtown Reader or order online from your favorite bookseller.

Easter Lily & Music Dedications – Due 3/27

Easter is a wonderful time to honor loved ones you've lost, or special people in your life today, by placing an Easter lily or music program dedication in their name. All dedications are listed in our Easter bulletins. Contributions can be submitted online by March 27, or through envelopes found in the pews.
