Market Grant Request Form 2023

St. John's Market grants are designed to provide funds for outreach in our community for:

- One time non-recurring projects that will address a current critical need in the community or for an identifiable outreach population.
- Non-recurrent expenditures including, but not limited to, funding of needed supplies, educational materials, equipment, or infrastructure for non-profit charitable or service organizations with mission targeting an identifiable outreach population.
- Grants may be provided for a variety of time-bound projects and collaborative activities that under normal conditions can be completed within one year. Grants are not typically awarded for the same project more than once.
- Funds will not generally be made available for ordinary, routine operation of organizations, programs or projects more appropriately funded through recurring operating budgets.
