

St. John's Chimes

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST | November 10, 2024

THIS WEEK

Founding Tallahassee - SALT Luncheon

Have you ever wondered why Tallahassee was chosen as Florida's capital? Or what indigenous people were living here when Tallahassee-Leon County was founded 200 years ago? Author Doug Alderson will speak about our capital city's early history this Fri., Nov. 15 at 10:30 AM at the SALT Luncheon. The presentation will be followed by a Q & A., and lunch. While SALT stands for "Senior Adults Living Triumphantly," ALL ages are welcome to join us. RSVP by Nov. 13.

Munchkins & Spiritual Harmony (MASH)

The Children's Ministry is launching a new group for parents with young children, Munchkins & Spiritual Harmony. "MASH" will be a fellowship for parents who are already committed to their own Christian faith journeys where we can empower and equip one another to accompany our children as they begin their own faith journeys. We will meet quarterly. Our first meeting is Sat., Nov. 16, 9 AM – 11 AM in Killeen Hall. The nursery will be open and we will have activities for K-5 children.

TODAY @ ST. JOHN'S

Paul's Perplexing Passages

A new Adult Sunday School class begins today: Paul's Perplexing Passages. Join Fr. Lonnie at 11:30 AM in the Chapel to dive into the Apostle Paul's letters. Over the next 6 weeks, we'll explore the social, cultural, political, and religious contexts behind Paul's most difficult passages. Together, we'll learn how the writings of this 2,000-year-old curmudgeonly saint still offer abundant grace for people today.

Youth Night: Friendsgiving meets Chopped!

Join us for Youth Night for Friendsgiving meets Chopped! We'll have a Friendsgiving meal with a "Chopped" -style challenge. It's going to be a fun AND tasty evening! Head to Alfriend Hall this afternoon from 5-7 PM, all youth are invited. Bring your friends and your cooking skills.

Tallahassee Bach Parley Concert

Enjoy an afternoon of beautiful music with the Tallahassee Bach Parley. At 3 PM, come to the church for "Crossing the Alps: Vivaldi, Neighbors, and Friends," a concert featuring string music. A $10 donation is suggested and childcare is provided.

Flower Guild Gathering

The Flower Guild is holding a meeting for all existing Flower Guild members, and for those who are interested in joining! If you have a flair for flowers and decorations or would like to learn more, join us at 4:30 PM in Killen Hall.
