Ash Wednesday - 3/5

Ash Wednesday is the official start to the holy season of Lent and is one of the two major fast days of the Church year. The Church rightly expects all practicing and able-bodied Christians to participate in the solemn Mass and Imposition of Ashes on this sacred day.

For your convenience, we offer three services: March 5 at 7 AM, 12:10 PM, and 6:30 PM. For those working at the Capitol and unable to attend services, Ashes to Go will be offered in the Capitol Rotunda.

COMING SOON

A Full Summer: Early Sign-ups

A FULL SUMMER's Snack Pack event brings together 270+ volunteers to pack snacks for Second Harvest of the Big Bend, which distributes them to organizations supporting at-risk children. This year's Snack Pack will be on Sat., May 31, 10 AM - 12 PM at Godby High School. Registration fills up quickly, but St. John's has 3 reserved teams (10 people per team). A $50 donation per person is requested, totaling $500 per team.

Gather your group and register early by contacting Laurye Messer (lauryemesser@gmail.com) by Fri., Feb. 28. No child should go hungry, gather your friends and sign up!

Walking the Mourner's Path - begins 3/11

When someone in our life dies, the resonance affects our entire being. This Lent, St. John's & Holy Comforter will once again offer "Walking the Mourner's Path," a grief support program that reminds us that God is present in our pain and we are not alone in our grief. Our six-week workshop series begins 3/11 and will be led by Melanie & Erik Salsgiver.

Learn more about the program online, or contact Melanie (melanie@hc-ec.org).
