Help St. John's Angel Food Ministry!

Love to cook? Our Angel Food Ministry is looking for volunteers to share the comfort of a good meal with fellow parishioners who are ill, grieving, or unable to cook for themselves. No need to be a gourmet chef —simple homemade dishes or even takeout are welcome. Help as often as you'd like, whether regularly or just when you can. Your kindness will make a big difference!

To be added to the volunteer list, email Emily Garretson (emilysgarretson.com).

Highlights

PARISH LIFE

SPUDS Fellowship Gathering

THURSDAY | MARCH 20
6:30 PM | THE MARSH HOME

Come celebrate the start of spring with SPUDS on Thur., March 20 at 6:30 PM. All are invited to an evening of light refreshments with St. John's parishioners at the home of Pamela Marsh (2508 Harriman Cir., 32308).

SPUDS stands for "St. John's Parishioners United for Dining and Spirit," which means everyone is welcome!

Easter Lily & Music Dedications

Easter is a wonderful time to honor loved ones you've lost, or special people in your life today, by placing an Easter lily or music program dedication in their name.

All dedications are listed in our Easter bulletins. Dedications can be submitted online by April 7, or through envelopes found in the pews.

COMING SOON

Lenten Service of Comfort & Healing - 3/26

Find peace this Lent in our midday service, a sacred space for those carrying grief, anxiety, or burdens. We'll also celebrate the Feast of the Annunciation. Amid Lent's solemnity, this feast shines with unexpected joy and hope. Join us in Carter Chapel at 12:10 PM on Wed., March 26.

The Good Funeral - 3/27

Join Fr. Lonnie and the St. John's Foundation on Thurs., March 27, at 5 PM in Killeen Hall for a thoughtful discussion on the theology of funerals at St. John's. Learn about traditions, planning decisions, and available support, and take home a helpful booklet with scripture, hymns, and planning forms. The best time to prepare is before the need arises. RSVP today.
