LENT at ST. JOHN'S

Morning Prayer

TUESDAYS IN LENT | 7:10 AM | CARTER CHAPEL

Starting Feb. 24, begin your day in prayer in the quiet beauty of Carter Chapel. Join St. John's lay leaders as we gather for the Daily Office, grounding ourselves in scripture, silence, and shared prayer. All are welcome.

A Lenten Quiet Day

SATURDAY | MAR. 14 | 9 AM - 12 PM

Step away from the noise of everyday life this Lent and join us for a Lenten Quiet Day—a gentle morning set apart for rest, reflection, and renewal. Come for as long as you're able and shape the morning in the way that best meets your spirit. Offerings include an Anglican Prayer Beads workshop, a reading room, quiet prayer in the gardens (weather permitting), and silent prayer in Carter Chapel. We will close the morning with an Instructed Holy Eucharist led by Fr. Lonnie. Please register below if you plan to attend the Prayer Beads Workshop.

Lenten Comfort & Healing Service:

The Annunciation of our Lord

WEDNESDAY | MAR. 25 | 12:10 PM | CHAPEL

This midday service will offer a sacred space for those carrying grief, anxiety, or burdens during Lent. We will observe the Feast of the Annunciation, when Gabriel told Mary she would bear the Christ child, reminding us that even as we journey toward the cross, God's promise of new life is already unfolding. In Lent's solemnity, the Annunciation will shine with unexpected joy, calling us to hold onto hope.
