PENTECOST

Wear Red on Pentecost Sunday

SUN. | MAY 24 | 7:45 & 10 AM | CHURCH

One way we celebrate Pentecost is by wearing red. When the entire parish wears red, we remember when the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus' disciples and all were able to understand one another's languages. We cannot wait to see the sea of red in the pews on May 24 at both our services, 7:45 & 10 a.m.!

YOUTH

St. Mary's Circle Scholarship Recipients

St. Mary's Circle is pleased to recognize Collins Barton and Rollins Miller as recipients of the 2026 Martha Lee Kuersteiner Scholarship.

Collins, a student at Louisiana State University, continues to serve actively in Episcopal campus ministry through worship leadership and student leadership roles. Rollins, a student at Auburn University, has distinguished himself through academic achievement, leadership, and faithful involvement in church and community life.

The Martha Lee Kuersteiner Scholarship is awarded annually to undergraduate students who demonstrate active participation in the life of St. John's Episcopal Church, strong academic achievement, and meaningful service to both church and community. St. Mary's Circle is honored to support these outstanding young people as they continue their education and faith journeys.
