Blessing of the Animals

SUN. | OCT. 4 | 2 PM | EVE'S GARDEN

Love your pet? We do too! Join us for St. John's annual Blessing of the Animals—a joyful celebration of all creatures great and small. Bring your furry, feathered, or scaly companion to Eve's Garden for a special outdoor blessing. Pets should be leashed or crated, and if your animal prefers to stay home, feel free to bring a photo or stuffed animal instead. All are welcome—pets and people alike!

"Meet Me Here": A Service of Choral Evensong

SUN. | OCT. 11 | 5:30 PM | CHURCH

Come as you are, and meet us here. "Meet Me Here" is a special Choral Evensong celebrating the beauty of choral music and the shared rhythms of the Church's prayer. We'll gather as a community to celebrate our differences, honor those who have too often been pushed to the margins, and make room for one another in the life of the Church. The service will follow the liturgy of St. Philip, whose feast day we observe, and will feature music composed by members of the LGBTQIA+ community. Our choir and choristers will lead this full Evensong service, including a brief homily.

All are welcome to worship with us, whether you come to pray, to listen, or simply to share in the beauty of being together. The loose plate offering will benefit Equality Florida.
